

interreg final conference

▼ Wednesday, November 28th 2012

10.00 a.m. start poster browsing, Foyer HS NB

10.30 a.m. registration start, Foyer HS NB

04.00 p.m. Welcoming ceremony HS NB, lecture hall 1

address of welcome by organisation committee, Prof. Flick/Tom Plocher address of welcome by the protector of HS NB, Prof. Grünwald address of welcome by the director of Kommunalgemeinschaft

Europaregion POMERANIA e.V., Mr. Heise

05.00 p.m. plenary lectures

05.00 p.m. Dr. Reinhard Eder (HBLA Klosterneuburg, Austria): Importance of phenolic substances for quality and authenticity of wine

06.00 p.m. Dr. Fulvio Mattivi (IASMA San Michele All'Adige, Italy): Rethinking grape and wine research in the age of metabolomics

ca. 07.00 p.m. Come together Foyer HS NB; free evening

▼ Thursday, November 29th 2012

- 08.00 a.m. trade show and poster presentation, Foyer HS NB
- 08.30 a.m. First session HS NB, lecture hall 1
 Prof. Dr. Gerhard Flick, Germany: INTERREG IVa financed Project - Overview and Perspectives for the Future „Cultivation of Wine and Thermophile Plants in the Pomerania-Region“
- 09.00 a.m. Dr. Piotr Chelpiński, Poland: the role of the ZUT in the project
- 09.30 a.m. Sabine Heeren, Germany: Analytical and organoleptic evaluations of plants and products in the Pomerania region
- 10.00 a.m. Dr. Paul Becher, Sweden: The vinegar fly Drosophila melanogaster as a model in food research
- 10.30 a.m. coffee break Foyer HS NB/ trade show/ poster presentation, Foyer HS NB
- 11.00 a.m. Second session HS NB, lecture hall 1
 Prof. Dr. Peter Witzgall, Sweden: Drosophila and yeast chemical ecology
- 11.30 a.m. Kimmo Rumpunen, Sweden: Blackcurrant wine and vinegar - effects of processing methods on content of beneficial polypheno
- 12.00 a.m. Prof. Dr. Eike Pawelzik, Dr. Inga Smit, Germany: Quality features of tomato genotypes under organic outdoor cultivation
- 12.30 p.m. lunch break Mensa HS NB/ trade show/ poster presentation, Mensa/Foyer HS NB
- 01.30 p.m. Third session HS NB, lecture hall 1
 Dr. Rolf Hornig, Germany: Sea buckthorn in Northeast Germany - its cultivation, experiences and research
- 02.00 p.m. Dr. Friedrich Höhne, Germany: Experimental results from northern Germany for the cultivation of Black Elder (Sambucus nigra)
- 02.30 p.m. Manfred Stoll, Germany: Impact of soil colour on physiological aspects and fruit ripening parameters of different Vitis vinifera cultivars
- 03.00 p.m. Wojciech Bosak, Poland: Economic sense of grape and wine production in cool and continental climates of south-eastern Poland
- 03.30 p.m. coffee break Foyer HS NB/ trade show/ poster presentation, Foyer HS NB
- 04.00 p.m. Forth session HS NB, lecture hall 1
 Prof. Dr. Ernst Heinrich Rühl, Prof. Dr. Joachim Schmid Germany: Varieties for wine growing in the north
- 04.30 p.m. Dr. Karine Pednault, Canada: Maturity and Quality of some hardy grape varieties grown in Quebec
- 05.00 p.m. Dr. Helen Fisher, Canada: Winter climate modification with wind machines
- 05.30 p.m. guided wine tasting, Mensa HS NB
- 07.00 p.m. dinner / trade show/ poster presentation, Mensa/ Foyer HS NB

german-polish cooperation days

▼ Friday, November 30th 2012

- 07.30 a.m. departure to Szczecin from Neubrandenburg, main entrance HS NB
- 09.30 a.m. welcoming at ZUT Szczecin, Auditorium Maximum ZUT, rector ZUT, Marshal
- 10.00 a.m. First session, Auditorium Maximum ZUT
Timo Taskinen, Finland: Manipulate the growing season - grow vines in Finland
- 10.30 a.m. Dr. Hans Rosenfeld, Norway: Improving climate in Northern Grape Growing
- 11.00 a.m. coffee break, Foyer ZUT
- 11.30 a.m. Second session, Auditorium Maximum ZUT
Tyler Kaban, Canada: Breeding grapes for the Canadian prairies
- 12.00 p.m. Dr. Max McFarland, USA: Controlling Disease With Ozone: A Commercial Vineyard Application; co-presenting with Mr. Ernie Wimink, AgriOzein USA
- 12.30 p.m. Dr. Xiaoyan Li, China: Problems of winter injury to vines in the dry cold climate of the Yellow River Valley and some practical cultural solutions
- 01.00 p.m. lunch break, Foyer ZUT
- 02.00 p.m. Third session, Auditorium Maximum ZUT
Harlene Hatterman-Valenti, USA: The northern grape project: research in viticulture, enology, and marketing for cold hardy grapes.
- 02.30 p.m. Dr. Gunvaldis Vesmins and Andris Dishlers, Latvia: Using germplasm from the Russian Near East, Far East and Moldova to develop new, high quality, early ripening hybrid grapes for wine
- 03.00 p.m. Dr. Jerzy Lisek, Poland: Winter hardiness, yielding and healthiness of perspective grapevine genotypes in Central Poland
- 03.30 p.m. coffee break, Foyer ZUT
- 04.00 p.m. Forth session, Auditorium Maximum ZUT
Torben Bo Toldam-Andersen, Denmark: Improvement of the Danish grape and wine quality
- 04.30 p.m. Piotr Stopczyński, Poland: Pałac Mierzęcin
- 05.00 p.m. departure to Neubrandenburg
- 07.00 p.m. dinner and open wine tasting / trade show/ poster presentation, Mensa/ Foyer HS NB

▼ Saturday, December 01st 2012

- 07.00 a.m. departure to excursion, main entrance HS NB
(for participants from Szczecin departure 07.30 a.m. at Slowackiego 17, Szczecin)
Pałac Mierzęcin and vineyards, Poland
Schloß Ratzeburg and vineyards, Germany